NOTE TO: DCI and DDCI

For your interest. During the past week, almost 1,500 of these cards (below) have been received from all over the U.S.--source unknown. All cards are identical, but some have words of encouragement added, and all are supportive. The large number received is gratifying and would, I suspect, not have materialized even a few years ago.

POSTCARD TO: Mr. William Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

P1M

Dear Mr. Casey:

The recent assassination attempt on the life of President Reagan makes it clear how vulnerable we are to acts of terrorism.

Please take your case for better intelligence to the public.

I urge you to use CIA case histories to convince the American people that our intelligence capabilities must be increased to counter the threat of international terrorism.
